

Expand the Fiber and Textile Science that KIT has cultivated since its founding to the "World".

From "Kyoto" where the technology of fibers and textiles has historically been inherited in industry...

KYOTO INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Center for Fiber and Textile Science

 Kyoto Institute of Technology
Center for Fiber and Textile Science

Contact

TEL +81-75-724-7701

FAX +81-75-724-7705 Mail fiber@kit.ac.jp

Matsugasaki, Sakyo-ku, Kyoto
606-8585 Japan
<https://www.cfts.kit.ac.jp/>

Official Website

Transmission of information/ Channel enhancement

Branding of this center and the contribution to the world from Kyoto

Establishment of counseling service counter

- Renewal of the website
- Counter system without any barriers

Offering of the place for the information exchange

- Display at the exhibition
- Holding events for industry-government-academia and reunion meeting

Activities as a international academic institute

- Strengthening of international cooperation through AUTEX (The Association of Universities for Textiles)

Development of human resources

Development of educators and engineers for the future and securing students

Development of leadership in the field of Fibers

- Evolve of the recurrent education adopting active learning

World's leading human recourses development

- Intermediary for internship in textile companies in the International cooperative Education Program(WE-TEAM)
- Opening of summer school etc.

Technique succession (archive)

Unearth and use of the super genuine technique

Visualization on an international standard and creation of the value

- Digital librarization and utilization of the textiles owned by KIT Museum and Archives

Discovery of new technology and the transfer to the research

- Digitalization of interview survey and technology of local company

Archiving of the handicraft/machine industry technology

- Investigation and implementation of the technique of archiving

